Doha Corniche

From Corniche you can take in the Doha skyline – best viewed at night. Walk the crescent-shaped bay starting from the Sheraton Hotel Park and ending at the Museum of Islamic Art Park. Make sure to stop by the FIFA World Cup Official Countdown Clock along the way – can you find your team's flag?

Dhow Boat Ride

One activity you must do while in Qatar is take a ride on a dhow boat, a wooden vessel traditionally used for pearl fishing. You can find them moored along the Corniche. They're available for group or private trips

Souq Waqif

Exploring this famous marketplace is a great way to get a feel for Qatari culture. Souq Waqif translates to 'standing market', as vendors stood in this trading market and sold their products. It is one of Qatar's main cultural landmarks. The mud daubed buildings and the winding alleyways depict Qatar's street life from yesteryear. The shops lining the alleyways sell anything and everything – from traditional clothing to fabrics, spices to nuts and sweets, makeup to oud, souvenirs to antiques, rugs to ornaments, and a whole lot more. If you're looking for local food, this is where you will find many delicious options

Katara Cultural Village

Katara Culture Village was conceptualized to bring different cultures together to celebrate diversity through art and culture in one single place. Located on the beachfront with a view of the Arabian Gulf and surrounding West Bay. There are great artworks and sculptures, art galleries, exhibition areas, and performance arenas including cinemas and a Greek-style amphitheater.

There are even workshops and festivals that take place all year round. As you move around the different fereej, or alleys, you will find restaurants and cafes in mud-daubed buildings, two beautiful mosques and the most famous Katara landmark – the pigeon towers. If you want to shop, walk down the chic 21

High Street that is air-conditioned and houses the famous French department store – Galleries Lafayette!

Souq Al Wakrah

Souq Al Wakrah to enjoy the nightlife. Souq Al Wakrah pays homage to the fishing village Al Wakrah and is a traditional-style seaside marketplace complete with mud-daubed buildings, courtyards, narrow pathways and traditional Qatari vibes. Set on the Arabian Gulf, Souq Al Wakrah is not too far from Al Janoub Stadium where some of the FIFA World Cup 2022 matches will be played! So, if you are watching one of the exciting matches there, it is worth visiting this souq. You will find lots of dining options opening onto the promenade, shops that sell different local and cultural items, and activities to do on the beach

Abdul Wahhab Mosque

Abdul Wahhab Mosque Qatar's grand mosque, which was refurbished and constructed on a mosque that was built by Qatar's founder Sheikh Jassim bin Mohammed Al Thani in memory of his father who passed away while Sheikh Jassim was in Al Zubarah taking part in a military campaign. Anyone can visit the mosque regardless of their religious affiliation when it is not prayer time and tours can also be arranged.

National Museum of Qatar

The National Museum of Qatar is a great place to start. This museum takes you through Qatar's past and present to tell you how it became the country it is today. It brings to life the story of Qatar and its people. Designed by the Pritzker award-winning French architect Jean Nouvel, who was inspired by the crystallised desert rose found in the deserts of Qatar, this museum is located on an old palace.

Museum of Islamic Art

One of the most iconic museums in Qatar. It opened in 2008 and its popularity placed Qatar on the cultural map. Designed by renowned Pritzker prize winning architect I.M. Pei, who also designed the Louvre in Paris. The museum pays homage to Islamic art and culture and their place in world history. It has one of the world's most diversified and comprehensive Islamic art collections, which has come in from all four corners of the world. Each artefact whether it is metalwork, ceramic, jewelry, woodwork, textile, coin or glass has been carefully selected and curated by experts. Each one with its own story and historical background. Along with its permanent collections.

Adjacent to the museum, there is a huge lush green park that overlooks the Doha skyline and the Corniche.

There are play areas that cater to children of different ages, a cafe and it is a great place to take a break before you move on to your next cultural experience!

Msheireb Downtown

Msheireb Downtown Doha – the very heart of the city. Msheireb was once the commercial hub of the city. It has since been refurbished to become the world's first sustainable downtown regeneration project and one of the smartest cities on earth. Here you will find Msheireb Museums. The museums are made up of four traditional houses dating back to the beginning of the 20th century. These four courtyard houses have preserved the memories of old Qatar along with its traditions and cultural heritage. Each house has its own unique story to tell!

Sheikh Faisal Bin Qassim Al Thani Museum

Sheikh Faisal Bin Qassim Al Thani Museum a must visit. This private museum contains items Sheikh Faisal has picked it up on his numerous travels. This private collection of over 30,000 artefacts and items will take you on a journey of time and place. Here, you will find relicots dating back to the dinosaur era, through to the early Islamic period, then to Qatar before and after oil was discovered, right down to today. You will find the world's largest private collection of weapons and swords here. You'll also gain an insight into early Qatari life and the culture of the area

Al Zubarah Fort

If you'd like to get out of Doha and explore other parts of the country between matches, take a road trip visit one of Qatar's main strongholds – Zubarah Fort. It was built in 1938 by Sheikh Abdullah bin Jassim Al Thani to function as a coast guard station on the ruins of an old fort. Located in the UNESCO World Heritage town of Al Zubarah, the fort is now a museum where you can learn more about the fort's history – an hour drive from the capital.

Qatar National Library

Another place you can explore Qatar's culture and traditions is at Qatar National Library. Housing over a million books, this modern library will give you an insight into the country's heritage through its books, films and the Heritage Library located in the basement. Here you will find an ever-growing collection of old periodicals, books, maps, atlases, photographs, manuscripts and documents in Arabic and other languages. Some of these date back to the 15th century and provide an insight to Qatar through the ages.

Desert safari

Desert safaris in Qatar cater to just about every whim. There's something for everyone quad biking, dune bashing, sand boarding and swimming in the Inland Sea.

You can't come to Qatar and leave without a desert safari adventure! Just an hour south of Doha you'll hit the spot where all the fun is on four wheels. Set off in the morning in a 4x4 to explore the sand and sea.

Quad biking

Dunes were made for quad bikes. There really isn't anything like conquering the Qatari desert on one. So head out of the city and down to the beach where you'll find rows of all-terrain vehicles lined up for hire to bash the dunes!

Camel rides

Travel over the dunes at sunset atop a camel and feel the Arabian breeze – traditional style! The ride may get a little bumpy for those who are inexperienced but it's all worth the ride.

Camping

Experience all the comforts of a luxurious Bedouin style camping tent. Gather around the communal campfire and relish the authentic Arabic grill dinner before calling it a night!

Dhow cruise

Traditional wooden dhow cruise it's quite the experience and not to be missed. Catch the sunset on the horizon and marvel at the Doha skyline in all its evening glory. These sturdy handcrafted dhows have been used for centuries for pearl diving and fishing, so cruising down the Arabian Gulf on one of these is an absolute must. Music, karaoke and a meal on board are part of the adventure.

Kayaking

Head up to Al Khor where you will find Purple Island and Al Thakira Mangroves. There's plenty to see while you kayak through the mangroves flora and fauna like reef egrets, terns, herons and even jumping fish!

Fishing

Qatar's crystal-clear waters are teeming with more than 150 different species of fish, such as barracuda, king mackerel, snapper, sheri and hamour. The north-east coast is the most popular among locals and expats, but you'll be sure to find great spots all along the coastline.

Stand-up paddle boarding

There are no big waves in Qatar the water is relatively calm though it may get a bit choppy in the winter it's ideal for stand-up paddle boarding. It may take a certain amount of strength and agility to stay upright but you'll soon learn the dynamics of balance you'll be gliding along in no time.

Speed boating

Love speed? Want to feel the wind in your hair? Start the day with a speed boat tour around Qatar! Glide over the turquoise waters with ease and comfort. Take in the sights and the sounds of Doha and its shoreline. Feel invigorated and enjoy the wild ride!
